

Tanglefoot Appalachian Cloggers Dancers Wanted

Monday Evenings 7.30 – 9.30 pm
Ash Village Hall TN15 7HB

Do you want to try out a fun and energetic style of dance?

We perform a style of percussive dance from the Appalachian Mountains in the South-Eastern United States. It is related to many other dance styles such as Irish stepping, English clog dancing and modern tap dance. We are lucky enough to dance to a live band that plays traditional old time tunes (think: O Brother Where Art Thou?). You may have seen us dancing at festivals in Rochester, Faversham, Tenterden etc.

We practise every Monday evening in Ash Village Hall, Ash-cum-Ridley.

We are currently looking for more dancers. Phone Ann on 01634 405840 to let us know if you intend to come along.

What do you need? Energy and a pair of tap or hard soled shoes. Come along and give it a try.

For more information see our website:

<http://www.tanglefootcloggers.co.uk/>